

Title: The Blessing in Your Hands.

Malachi 3:10 (NIV)

"Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house. Test me in this," says the Lord Almighty, "and see if I will not throw open the floodgates of heaven and pour out so much blessing that there will not be room enough to store it."

Introduction

There's a blessing in your hands today.

A blessing that doesn't just touch your bank account, but your family, your future, and your faith.

I want to talk to you today about tithes and offerings — not just as financial support, but as a spiritual discipline that invites God's supernatural blessing into your life and into this house.

This is more than a money message. This is a mission message.

Because when the people of God all come together — with generosity and unity — the Church becomes unstoppable.

Tithe and offerings Unlocks Blessings.

Let's start with the promise:

Malachi 3:10–12

"Bring the whole tithe... Test me... I will pour out blessing... I will prevent pests... all nations will call you blessed."

God connects our giving to His outpouring.

Tithe and Offering is not a debt we owe — it's a seed we sow.

The blessing goes beyond finances — God promises protection, provision, and praise from others who will see His hand on your life.

Takeaway:

Your obedience brings overflow. When you give to God, He always gives back more — in ways money can't buy.

2 Corinthians 9:6–8

"Whoever sows generously will also reap generously... God loves a cheerful giver... You will abound in every good work."

Offerings are above the tithe — offerings covers the expense of the tabernacle, physical church building.

Obedience isn't about an amount — it's about an attitude.

God doesn't bless us because we give, He blesses us as we give — it's an ongoing relationship of trust.

Takeaway:

Your offering is not about what leaves your hands — it's about what enters your heart.

Everyone Has a Part to Play.

Acts 4:32–35

"All the believers were one in heart and mind... No one claimed any of their possessions was their own... There were no needy persons among them."

The early church was generous, united, and powerful — because everyone participated.

Imagine what could happen in this church if every person tithed and gave offerings, and served.

The lights don't stay on by accident.

The outreach doesn't happen without commitment.

The children's ministry, worship, missions, counseling — it all requires a fully engaged church.

When we all bring what we have, no one lacks what they need.

Takeaway:

When everyone does something, the church can do anything.

The Local Church is God's Plan A.

Matthew 16:18

"I will build my church, and the gates of hell will not prevail against it."

God isn't blessing buildings — He's blessing His body.

And the local church is where His people grow, serve, and reach the world.

When you give to the local church:

You're not paying bills — you're planting legacy.

You're not funding programs — you're fueling life change.

You're not giving to a man — you're giving through a church to God.

This is holy ground. And we get to be a part of it.

To the faithful giver:

Keep going. God sees every seed.

You may not see the harvest yet, but the roots are growing. Your giving is changing lives — and God is not finished blessing you.

To the hesitant or the unsure:

Take the step. Trust God.

You don't have to be rich to give — you just have to be willing.

Start with what you have, and watch what God can do.

To the whole church:

Let's rise up together — in faith, unity, and generosity.

Let's be the kind of church that heaven applauds and hell fears — because we're all in, together.

Luke 6:38 (NIV)

"Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over... For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you."

GIVING DECLARATION:

Upon the authority of the word of God, I have given, and it shall be given back to me, pressed down, shaken together, and running over. I am a Giver, I bring YOUR tithe and offerings into your storehouse therefore, the enemy is rebuked, the curse is broken, and I live under an open heaven because you pour out upon me such blessings that there is no room to receive it.

WE RECEIVE:

Jobs and better jobs, raises and bonuses, sales and commissions, benefits and settlements, estates and inheritances, interests and rebates, checks in the mail, gifts and surprises, bills paid off, debts demolished, royalties received, my whole family saved and walking with God. Perfect health to all, and for all to walk in divine favor and blessings.

I'm blessed going in, I'm blessed going out, and all that I do will prosper in Jesus name
AMEN!
